The following manuscripts (nos. 483-538) are not included in Nasmith's Catalogue. They fall into the following divisions: nos. 483-492 are acquisitions of various dates; nos. 493-498 are either bound up with, or kept among, printed books, all but one of which were bequeathed by Archbishop Parker: nos. 499-538 (on which see the Introduction) are manuscripts which, with one probable exception (no. 511), were given to the College early in the seventeenth century, and formerly belonged to a monastic library at Elbing near Dantzic. The damaged condition of this last group has caused my descriptions to be somewhat shorter than usual.

483. BIBLIORUM PARS I.

vac.

Vellum, 13 × 9, ff. 2 + 237, double columns of 40 lines. Cent. xii and xv. The older part in a very fine black upright "Roman" minuscule. Stamped leather (Italian) over wooden boards, repaired and rebacked. Given by ?

Contents:

f. i in the original hand contains the text of Gen. xxxiii-xxxv beginning in xxxiii 1, oculos suos uidit uenientem. It should precede immediately f. 21.

f. ii is a much effaced document with notarial mark: apparently relating to a church in Ireland. The names Akadiens', Dublinens', Casselens' occur.

Quires 1, 2 (ff. 1-20) are a supply of cent. xv, very neatly written.

Original hand breaks off at 4 Reg. xvii 24 (f. 225 ^b): et de thutha et de aiath et.
Quire 29 is a supply of cent. xv, as quires 1, 2.
The leaf that should follow 225 is now bound as f. 236, ending in xviii 27: ut loquerer sermones hos. et non.
The supply completes 4 Reg. and continues with Prol. in libro paralipomenon (Si septuaginta) and 1 Par. i-vii 2 et raphaia et ierihel ema et iepsem et (Samuel).
The last leaf is, like f. ii, a part of a document much effaced:
Line 1—vulgarie...Regina prouincie pr. . . . alqa . . . ii ac pedimontis comitissa Lower down: Abbas monasterii S. Johannis de pr. . . dioc. poli castriensis is mentioned.
The notary's signature contains the words Insula sicilie.
